Established Clubs Vie with New Clubs for Students' Interest and Benefit

Competing for annual awards, the members of the ELHS MATH LEAGUE participated in the five area and one State contests held during the 1966-67 school year by the Western Massachusetts Mathematics League. Under the direction of advisor Francis Dutille, the club's members found practice sessions useful to their own study of mathematics, and these competitions, offered opportunities to meet area students and compare mathematical programs offered by various schools.

"... BUT YOU CANNOT USE that theorem for this problem," explains Don Orlando to MATH LEAGUE members Phil Gold, Karen Maybury, and Nancy Schmidt.

The CHESS CLUB provided a battleground for both experienced and novice chess enthusiasts. At informal meetings, advisor Richard Grover and officers Gary Tarpinian, Gary Newton, Susan Lyman, and Rosemary Dion led the club members in perfecting their skills and stratagems in preparation for ELHS competition with other area schools and clubs.

Gary Tarpinian and Gary Newton conduct their "war games" at CHESS CLUB "headquarters" as Mr. Grover, Greg Ellsworth, and Mike Allen offer advice.

OFF TO MT. TOM for an afternoon of skiing are Richard Waite and Randy Smith, 2 of the founders of the SKI CLUB.

Cries of "Track!" cleared the way for ELHS' newest athletic activity, the SKI CLUB. Club advisor Miss Joan Bereswill and directors Richard Waite and Randy Smith organized Spartan enthusiasts into a group that met weekly for films, guest speakers, discussions, participation in a dry hill beginners' course, and group skiing outings. The Ski Club met the demand of the growing number of people who have made skiing one of the most popular modern individual and team sports.

Working under the auspices of the Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross, the ELHS RED CROSS CLUB completed projects contributive to both the community and disaster areas around the world. The annual fund-raising drive was only one of the activities of the ambitious club; others included seasonal decorations for area veterans' homes, birthday parties at Westover Air Force Base, and work at local Community Centers. Miss Barbara Condon served as the group's advisor.

CREATING CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS for area veterans' homes are Rosemary Casey, Carolyn Swanson, Ruth Ferguson, and Victor Cella, members of the RED CROSS CLUB.

Music changed key at ELHS this year, when the new schedule made possible in-class practice sessions for the various music groups. Music Night and Spartanum Spectaculum provided the stage for glowing performances by the GLEE CLUB, CHORUS, and CHARMERS, while the BAND displayed the varied talents of its members at football and basketball games and at town parades. Both vocal and instrumental groups assisted in the Dramatics Club's production of "Finian's Rainbow" in January. On the playing field or on the concert stage, instrumental music Director Joseph Charron and vocal music Director Mrs. Margaret Corliss received enthusiastic response from the ELHS musicians for 1966-67.

Time for All Students

The business of the Principal's Office, Guidance Office, and Library is forever complicated by the thousands of details involved in keeping ELHS the efficient organization it is. Several students annually offer their services as aides in these departments. By performing such tasks as delivering messages, shelving books, and distributing appointment slips, they free the talents of Mrs. Livingstone, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Lopes, and Mrs. McGowan from the burden of trivia. Although they are not organized clubs, the OFFICE AIDES, GUIDANCE OFFICE AIDES, and LIBRARY AIDES deserve recognition as most active and useful ELHS groups.

Desire for "Involvement" Draws Students

ELHS VARSITY DEBATERS proved that "experience isn't everything" by their 1966-67 season. A new team with a new advisor, the group soared to first place in its competition with the fifteen schools of the Connecticut Valley Debate League, participated in novice and varsity practice debates with other New England schools, and observed college debating at the University of Massachusetts and Dartmouth College. Advisor James C. Lawrence, President Laurence Butler, and Secretary Janet Breau ably led the club to fulfill its purpose of developing poise, facility in public speaking, and the ability to think on one's feet.

WITH THE THOUGHT of an imminent regional conference, Tim Thompson, Gary Tarpinian, Larry Butler, and Charles Valliere sharpen their attack for the DEBATE CLUB.

"ALL IN FAVOR, say 'Aye,'" Scott Moore's bill becomes law as the "legislators" of MODEL CONGRESS prepare for their conference at American International College.

Under the advisorship of Daniel Kane, the MODEL CONGRESS CLUB learned through experience the workings of the State and National governments. At their weekly meetings, members of the group debated and discussed bills, while each member wrote and presented a bill for the legislative sessions reenacted by the Model Congresses and Model U.N.'s held at Boston College, Harvard University, American International College, and New Rochelle (New York) High School. The club also sponsored a visit to the school by State Representative Vernon Farnsworth.

Organized "to better relations between students and faculty," the STUDENT GOVERNMENT met weekly to discuss special projects and to act as a sounding board and liaison for student policy suggestions to the administration. Led by advisor Manley H. Hart and officers Carol Hamlin, Andrea Takis, Nancy Dalessio, Linda Haetinger, and Robert Willard, the group sponsored dances, spectator busses for away games, the annual car wash, bonfire, and Parents' Day Football Game, and, with the Honor Society, the Student Store and Spartanum Spectaculum. Orderly and alert to the problems of the day, the Student Government stood as a living symbol that modern youth can learn to govern themselves.

When does a newspaper become a news event? When its name is SPARTAN SPIRIT and it begins to broadcast its news with the aid of professional printing! Ambitious co-editors Carolyn Swanson and Paul Plumadore and advisor Miss Anita Katseoris were able for the first time this year to turn the talents of their staff exclusively to accurate and quick reporting, leaving the details of printing to the Preston Brown Press of Agawam. A new format and the addition of more editorials, more articles by teachers, and more feature articles gave the ELHS paper its best year yet.

GENS TOGATA augmented student interest in Classical cultures with the slides, lectures, games, and plays in both English and Latin that filled the agenda of its bi-weekly meetings. Annual activities included the fall "Church Crawl," "Saturnalia," a winter skating and sliding party, Latin Week in March, and the spring "Picus Nicus."

In addition to its sports activities and informal get-togethers, the ELHS SPANISH CLUB ventured into the world of radio communication this year by preparing fifteen-minute tape recordings for a radio station in Springfield. A new advisor and new activities gave the Spanish Club a spark of popularity that prompted more students to benefit from the enrichment of Spanish culture and customs.

Mrs. Alma Richards, James C. Lawrence, Miss Shirley R. Pottern, and Miss Gayle E. Sweed, advisors to the French, Latin, Spanish, and German clubs, found the lack of a daily Activity Period no hindrance to Spartan interest in other cultures and languages.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS delighted its members with a tea, a fashion show, guest speakers, a Christmas party, and plays by both students and teachers. Club activities were climaxed by a gala Mardi Gras Ball held in February.

Newly formed DEUTSCHE GESELLSCHAFT used the 1966-67 school year as an organizational one, and plans program expansion for the future. This year's activities included films, skits, and recordings, as well as light-hearted practice in the art of German conversation.

THE CUSTOMS AND SIGHTS of Deutschland captivate these GERMAN CLUB enthusiasts: Ann Dominic, Jim Stratos, Greg Ellsworth, and Susan Galica.

Honor Society and Leaders Club Instruct Schoolmates

The official purpose of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is "to recognize superior scholastic achievement, to promote leadership, and to help develop the qualities of character and service among the members." Under the guidance of advisor John R. Roan and officers Timothy Guerra, Camille Pellegrino, Catherine Cooper, and Patricia Barker, the ELHS club became an active participant in school life by sponsoring the "As Schools Match Wits" TV team, the annual Christmas Alumni Tea, a tutoring service, student visits to area college campuses, the Induction Ceremony, and, with the Student Government, Spartanum Spectaculum. A membership greatly increased by the new system of petitioning for entrance to the club in both the fall and the spring helped make the 1966-67 school year a successful one for the ELHS Chapter of the National Honor Society.

DISTRIBUTING TUTORING ASSIGNMENTS to HONOR SOCIETY members Patricia Barker, Toni Vecchiarelli, Cathy Cooper, and Tim Guerra is Advisor Mr. John Roan.

The 1966-67 members of the LEADERS' CLUB continued well their traditions by once again providing ample assistance to the teachers in the girls' physical education classes. Under the direction of Dr. Jakie S. Upshaw, the group enjoyed special practice sessions in the various sports offered by the ELHS gym program.

and Aid Teachers

"A picture's worth a thousand words," runs the old adage, and the members of the A.V. CLUB are always ready to help prove the saying true. Advised by Lloyd Dale, the members of the club enhance their own knowledge of audio-visual equipment while providing aid for teachers supplementing their classes with the most modern methods of communication. With the co-operation of Mrs. Lois Lopes, the High School maintains an up-to-date and ever growing library of films, filmstrips, and records available for use by all the town schools.

The AEGIS reached new heights in 1967. Co-editors Vicki Nystrom and Robert Barry and faculty advisor Richard P. Stenta can look with pride at a book with more sales, more color photography, and more space devoted to each aspect of school life than ever before. Advisor Miss Barbara Condon led the ELHS MAJORETTES to new and better routines for the 1966-67 seasons. Spartan J.V. Team Plays Hard To Gain Gridiron Experience

This year's Junior Varsity team enjoyed a winning season, coming out on top in five of their six contests, losing only to Palmer. The team faced two tough city opponents, Commerce and Trade and beat both by considerable margins, 28—2 and 28—6 respectively. The team was directed by Coach Rinaldi, who was Coach Vespaziani's right hand man during the season.

Promising players for next year's Varsity team who saw action were: Bernie Sweeney, Bill Zuccalo, John Wrinkle, Jerry Sawyer, and Brad Towle. RINALDI'S RAIDERS, as the team was called, gave the three '66 Spartan football teams their only taste of victory.

Despite Fine Team Spirit, Varsity Suffers Through

The disheartening record of no wins and eight losses doesn't tell the whole story of the Spartan football season. Of the eleven seniors returning for a second season only four saw enough action last year to provide any leadership or to instill any confidence in the new players.

Each week the team came back from heartbreaking defeats to look ahead to a tough week of practice with high hopes for a victory on the following Saturday, under the leadership of Ron Laliberte and Jeff Naylor. The games with Classical and Commerce were the team's best offensive efforts. In their first home game, the spirited Spartans held Ludlow, the Suburban League Champs, to eight points with a tremendous defensive showing. In the Classical contest the Spartans were hurt by the passing ability of the heavily favored adversary. The Spartans though, never physically beaten, ground out two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Willard scored the first touchdown on a four yard run, after a seventy-five yard drive; then Raschilla took off on a forty-eight yard sprint for the second tally.

Bob Willard, who was converted from offensive guard to fullback, and was introduced to defense as line-backer, was given the awards of Most Valuable Player and Hatchet Man for the season at the Fall Sports' Awards Assembly. Other lettermen included twelve seniors, six juniors, and five sophomores.

With the addition of many new freshmen and the return of this year's underclassmen, next year's club will have both size and experience.

J.V. Soccer Team That Posts a Winning Season

The Junior Varsity soccer team, composed completely of freshmen and sophomores, turned in a winning season, contending with inexperience and a lack of reserves. Five of the six losses occurred in overtime or in the last three minutes of the game.

One of the key victories for the JV soccer team was the 4-3 victory over West Springfield. With ten seconds to go in regulation time, West Side scored a goal to tie the game at 2-2. After both teams had scored in the first overtime, with one second remaining in the second overtime, Barry Rufenacht scored a goal for E.L. This play was typical of the effort the team gave this season.

Rick Malmstrom had four shut outs, and would have had a fifth, except a goal was scored by one of his own players by accident at Minnechaug. Paul Lieberwirth and Dave Weferling were the leading scorers with four goals each. They, along with Dave Griffin, Barry Rufenacht, and Bill Passburg, made up the front line. Scott Seymour, John Corliss, and Dave Carpenter were the halfbacks, and Malmstrom was in the goal, with Bob Bradley and Bill Kenyon at full-back positions.

Feathler, Miorandi and O'Hearn Chosen Co-Captains of Varsity Soccer Team

The 1966 Soccer Team finished a fine year with a 7-5-2 record. The season was highlighted by twin victories over our traditional rival Longmeadow. The Spartan booters dropped two heartbreakers of the we-should-have-won-it variety. The team effort was exemplified by the sterling performance of goalie Dan Melien, who turned in a school record of 9 shutouts; the outstanding drive of Doug Burr who had 6 goals; and the excellent leadership as exhibited by Ralph Miorandi, Brian O'Hearn, and Lou Di Monaco were defensive standouts. Post-season awards were highlighted by the selection of Doug Burr to the All-Western Mass. first team and Pioneer Valley first team. Brian O'Hearn, Dan Melien, and Ralph Miorandi all made the Pioneer Valley Second Team. Honorable mention honors were garnered by Gary Feathler, Pete Mulcahy, Rich D'Amato, and Lou DiMonaco. Next year's squad, with five starters returning and led by excellent coaching of coach Ralph Cooley, promises to be a good one.

J.V. Basketball

Four baskets! The margin by which this team was held to a fair season of 4—13. Yet the season's cold statistics cannot tell of the excitement generated by the close games, or of the fine playing by the boys. A case in point was the second Ludlow game. The teams repeatedly exchanged the lead until Jack Blaisdell popped 10 points in the fourth quarter to wrap up the game. Other games, notably with Agawam, were close until key Spartan players fouled out.

Coach Richard McCormick's J.V. hoopsters were led by top scorers Dan Thomas, who was known as "the hustler" because of his fine moves and ball hawking, with 189 points; by John Corliss, who with Dan Thomas, played on the varsity team, with 165 points; and by Jack Blaisdell, who scored key baskets and was tough off the boards, with 159 points. Scott Seymour and Bernie Sweeney shared the rebounding chores. Bob Lundgren, who played guard, was considered by his teammates as the playmaker.

Varsity Basketball

With graduation, injuries, and illness taking their toll, the varsity team was able to play as a unit for only a few games, and compiled a 2—16 record. Despite such gloomy statistics, there were sparks of greatness for ELHS fans to cheer: Brian Kennedy maintained his yearly average of 300 rebounds and 300 points; Lou DiMonaco, with 303 points, was scoring leader; Doug Burr joined the high scorers with 182 points. This trio garnered 779 of the 1196 team points. Filling out the team were seniors Jeff Naylor, Mike Grossi, Gary Feathler, George Page, and juniors Jim Latourelle and Don Thompson.

The Western Mass Small Schools Tournament brought together a healthy team that refused to play the loser's role assigned them by sports writers, and beat favored Hopkins Academy 37—34. Mr. John Katsoulis' team bowed to Easthampton in the semi-finals 63—59 bringing their 2 year Tourney record to 4—1.

PROUD OF ITS SCHOOL SPIRIT, the sophomore class expressed this enthusiasm by active participation in sports, by attendance at school events, and by academic excellence. In evidence of this spirit, a sophomore, Bob Willard, was elected to the office of member-at-large of the Student Government. At the first sophomore class meeting in October, the sophomores showed their planning by settling the cost of dues and by the selection of homeroom representatives by the class officers. The representatives proved a valuable aid to the class officers by acting as liaison between the students and officers and by collecting dues. Under the able direction of class advisors, Mr. Richard Grover and Mrs. Nola Sheldon, the sophomores planned a dance in the early spring. Although the members of the Class of '69 have only just finished their second year at East Longmeadow High School, they have proved their willingness to assume leadership and are looking forward to their remaining years.

Juniors Begin Work on Yearbook; Choose "Impressions" for Theme

DEMONSTRATING THEIR SPIRIT and ambition throughout the year, the junior class completed an active year. The class was ably represented on the varsity sports teams, Student Government, and National Honor Society. The fall social season at ELHS began November 12, when the juniors sponsored a well attended dance featuring the Challengers. Under the chairmanship of John Thurner, class president, over 400 tickets were sold to eager students. The romance of foreign lands was brought to the class and school with the enrollment of Ruth Thiadens of Holland and Stamatoula Papandricopoulous of Greece. In the spring, the annual Faculty vs. Varsity Basketball Game was held. Crowning their year with the traditional Junior Prom, the juniors had a vivid glimpse of their senior activities.

In Dedication to . . .

THE CLASS of 1967 wishes to honor MR. ROBERT VESPAZIANI—teacher and coach. But it is not for his teaching that we honor him, though his teaching is excellent. It is not for his coaching that we honor him, though his teams have brought us thrills and glory. We honor him for the SPIRIT he has kindled in us, a spirit that is the sign of our pride in ELHS. To him we dedicate AEGIS '67.

*As I reflect upon my four year quest,
The visions of classrooms crowd my thoughts;
Classrooms filled with knowledge and pleasure,
The pleasure of friendships formed there . . .
To be cherished for a lifetime.

Publishing a YEARBOOK

is as simple as

Don Lendry
Publisher's Representative

AMERICAN YEARBOOK COMPANY

- ☐ Cambridge, Md. ☐
- ☐ Topeka, Kan. ☐
- ☐ Hannibal, Mo. ☐
- ☐ Glendale, Calif. ☐

To the casual reader a yearbook is often simply an "album" of pictures with written text. Merely ink on paper... though nice to own and enjoy.

But to the staff and adviser the yearbook means much more. For yearbook work comprises a multitude of details: Layout, Art, Photography, Copy, Typography, Covers and Binding, (not to mention the small detail of money-raising). Highly technical and often time-consuming and a source of anxiety to a staff unless the publisher's representative is trained to give needed help and suggestions.

At American your publisher's representative is a member of the school's yearbook team. He is skilled in the many facets of yearbook work, having at his fingertips the answers to yearbook problems as well as a multitude of ideas. He is always there when you need him.

This is why we say "Publishing a Yearbook is as simple as AYC."
